EARLY LEARNING CENTER (ELC)
NURSERY - GRADE 2

Our talented and dedicated teachers work with parents to provide unique and positive learning opportunities for our youngest students. English, math, art, music, iPads, experiments, and field trips are just a few of the many educational activities ELC students enjoy.
LOWER SCHOOL
GRADERS 3-5

Students become even more independent when they move to what they call “The Big School.” Teachers continue to provide quality elementary instruction in English / ESL, math, science, and social studies, and also offer a rich assortment of arts, music, technology, sports, values, and spiritual growth.
MIDDLE SCHOOL
GRADES 6-8

Teachers create opportunities for middle school students to experience the joy of learning, to foster positive relationships with peers and adults, and to encourage sound decision making that is rooted in careful thought, empathy, and individual responsibility.

Middle School brings new activities like using lockers, transferring classrooms for each subject, and trying out for team sports. Faculty, coaches, the guidance counselor and principal support students and prepare them for upper school.
UPPER SCHOOL
GRDES 9-12

This is an exciting time, and we proudly support our upper school students on their road to maturity. Teachers emphasise the importance of time management skills, and students strive to reach their full potential academically, athletically, and ethically.

Brent's goal is not to simply graduate students, but to help seniors matriculate to universities that are the best fit. Faculty, counselors, the principal and the IB coordinator are among the many adults who help students navigate the demands of IB Diploma program and best prepare them for university.
I was really scared moving halfway around the world but I adjusted so well. Teachers were incredibly supportive. I'm grateful that I was able to fit in so well.

There's always something to do after school, so even though my studies were a bit difficult, afterwards I was always looking forward to a sport, the play, or dance.

During my time in Brent, I followed my passions and got to experience what it felt like going abroad, being more independent and seeing how other schools deal with the same things we're doing.

You'll feel comfortable sharing your opinions or discussing topics that are sensitive because despite diversification in Brent, there's unity.

TESTIMONIALS

Since joining Brent I have seen my son’s confidence build and a feeling of security take shape. The inclusiveness and encouragement that was extended to my son during the first week of school has developed a curiosity and commitment like I have never seen. His change of attitude even positively impacted his athletics. His swim times all improved in the first month of joining Brent, and his interests have branched out. I am very pleased with my son’s positive attitude, but am most pleased with just how happy he is. He loves going to school at Brent.

Troy, American, father of a Grade 8 student

My son has gained academic independence and better organizational skills from some of the amazing teachers at Brent. When faced with a challenge, the school has helped us overcome difficulties by keeping us in the loop. Brent has contributed greatly in allowing us to move forward. My son is very happy with experiences provided by the school.

Keiko, Japanese, mother of a Grade 10 student

I describe Brent has a hidden gem. Every mile on that school bus is worth a million when you see your child coming home from school with a smile, and telling you they had a great day, and seeing them take time at night to say thank you God for something they experienced that day.

Julie, Canadian, mother of grades 2 and 4 children

Charles Henry Brent was born in Canada in 1862. He moved to Buffalo, New York for his first ministerial position, and in 1901 was elected Missionary Bishop of the Philippines for the Protestant Episcopal Church.

The Bishop founded Brent School Baguio in 1909. Originally a boarding school for the sons of American families stationed in the Philippines, 110 years later it is a co–educational boarding and day school with an international student population.

In 1984, the Board of Trustees of Brent School established Brent International School Manila in Pasig, Metro Manila. This second Brent school graduated its first twelve students in 1986.

In 1994, the Board of Trustees opened a third Brent school in Subic for children of foreign investors and those of the local community.

In 1997 the three schools were incorporated separately, and each now has its own Board of Trustees under the Corporation.

Our rich past has deep meaning today, symbolically and in practice. Brent welcomes students from all religious faiths and backgrounds, and provides a quality American-style education in a nurturing atmosphere. Our positive sense of community, and ability to support students in mind, body and spirit, is proudly traced to our unique inception in 1909.
Greetings!

The best way to get to know Brent School is to visit. Schedule a tour to see our campus and learn more about how we support our students in mind, body, and spirit.

This is my 22nd year with Brent. When I reflect on my time here as a teacher, Director for Admissions, and parent, several things come to mind. I think of our strong community, a caring Christian atmosphere, diversity, an exemplar International Baccalaureate (IB) Program, thriving athletics and activities, excellent facilities, proud alumni, and our 110-year history. Mostly, I think about our students—the amazing opportunities they have, the diverse universities they have attended, and how proud our community is of them.

I'll be happy to share more with you, and talk through the possibilities of joining the Brent Family.

Keep in touch!
